Where we are

The Hotel Villa Diodoro is located far from the traffic of the city, but literally a 5 minute walk to the historical center, with Corso Umberto for shopping enthusiasts, and the famous Roman Greek Theatre dating back to the 3rd Century AD. The hotel is also right next to the superb Public Garden of the Villa Comunale, an 'English Garden' created by Florence Trevelyan about 100 years ago, rich with idyllic spots in which to enjoy the splendour of this wonderfully maintained garden.

The Hotel Caparena is also an ideal base from which a range of unique excursions can be made - a trip to the Volcano of Etna, or to the nearby Aeolian Islands, with its natural springs and breathtaking landscapes, are sure to delight those seeking a special holiday experience. Just 15 minutes drive from the hotel lies Taormina Mare, with its amazing seashore and the private pebbled beach, Lido Caparena', of the sister Hotel Caparena and Wellness Club.

The Hotel Villa Diodoro is also an ideal base from which a range of unique excursions can be organized - a trip to the Volcano of Etna, to the medieval town of Castelmola or to the nearby Aeolian Islands, with its natural springs and breathtaking landscapes, are sure to delight those seeking a special holiday experience.
